throughout the history of christianity lesbian gay bisexual and transgender lgbt or queer people have been condemned as unrepentant sinners who are in dire need of god's saving grace as a result of this condemnation lgbt people have been subjected to great spiritual emotional and physical abuse and violence this issue takes on a particular urgency in light of the ongoing harassment and bullying of lgbt young people by their classmates cheng argues that people need to be liberated from the traditional legal model of thinking about sin and grace as a violation of divine and natural laws in which grace is understood as the strength to refrain from violating such laws rather cheng proposes a christological model based upon the theologies of irenaeus bonaventure and barth in which sin and grace are defined in terms of what god has done for us in jesus christ this book serves as a useful resource for all people who struggle to make sense of the traditional christian doctrines of sin and grace in the context of the 21st century in his first letter peter declares that jesus bore our sins in his body so that we may cease from sin and live for righteousness he followed that by saying that some people had ceased from sin he himself bore our sins in his body on the tree that we may cease from sinning and live for righteousness 1 peter 2 24 since therefore christ suffered in the flesh arm yourselves with the same way of thinking for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for corrupt human desires but for the will of god 1 peter 4 1 2 peter says that there were people who had ceased from sin moreover he tells how they became people who had ceased from sin they suffered in the flesh he also gives us a glimpse into how such people lived no longer controlled by corrupt desires but by god's will the real possibility of ceasing from sin should be of great interest to those who love jesus john 14 15 21 23 24 seek to be controlled by god's will 1 peter 4 1 2 seek to live for righteousness 1 peter 2 24 seek to be free from sin seek the spiritual growth and fruitfulness that comes with being free from sin seek eternal life matthew 5 29 30 18 8 9 mark 9 44 47 seek fellowship and union with god john 14 15 21 23 satan is interested in keeping people from ceasing from sin he is seeking to rob jesus and us of the results of his sacrifice through one of the greatest deceptions in history causing people to believe that it is

this catechism is divided into three parts the first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace in the first part our lord appears in his character of teacher in the second in his character of king and in the third in his character of high priest and since this catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man s high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many this catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of our lord s teaching and may be called a guide book for the christian on the road to heaven preface
