this is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable in today s secular world the christian faith is viewed as only one aspect of what could be called religious life acknowledging this hendrikus berkhof begins this thought provoking study with a sketch of religion and faith in general before narrowing it down to a discussion of the specific place of christian faith beginning with the whole of reality makes it possible to use religion as the basis from which to acquire an understanding of the relevance of the christian faith for that total reality thus a study of christian faith can answer questions that deal with the place of humanity in the cosmos the meaning of life and existence the meaning of freedom and of death berkhof defines religion as the relation to the absolute faith is one step beyond religion as it is the establishment of god s relationship to his people christian faith builds on old testament faith because the promises of the old testament are accepted as being fulfilled in the ministry suffering death and resurrection of jesus christ for berkhof the study of christian faith is a systematic examination of the content of the relationship which god in christ has entered into with us because the study of the faith is systematic there must be an order to it this order varies from theologian to theologian for berkhof the starting point is revelation the sources and norms for our knowledge of god this leads to a discussion of god creation of the world and of human beings israel the person and work of christ the church and finally the renewal of the world and of humanity throughout the book berkhof comments on and often takes issue with systematic theologians of the past written for both the layperson and the scholar the text is interspersed with excurses set off in smaller type than the main text that cover specific subjects more thoroughly citing sources controversies and the like which will be of particular interest to theologians and students this newly revised edition a translation of the dutch fifth edition takes into account developments in dogmatics in the thirteen years since berkhof prepared the first edition of christian faith berkhof s aim throughout is to present his understanding of the truth of god but as he writes in his preface the study of the faith is not something to learn so much as something to do and practice a book can do no more than help us to get started and stimulate us to try to do it on our own this book like the earlier edition admirably succeeds in meeting that goal this book is different from most other books of the same genre it simply takes another approach at expounding upon these great biblical themes the author has taken the letters of each theme and has built a chapter or chapters upon each letter the author simply believes that there is something else to be said than what has been said so far about the christian faith the faith which was once delivered unto the saints may god bless each reader who reads these few pages dr jones was born in the small southeastern kentucky community of girdler he is the youngest of fourteen children seven boys and seven girls he and his wife carolyn now reside in hamilton oh dr jones has earned a masters degree in theology and a doctorate in religion having held five pastorates in over thirty years of ministry this present work is his fourth book updated for a younger generation the life changing dfd 2 0 bible studies will help students learn why and how to live for god s glory john paul ii s faith and reason was written against a background of catholic scholarship focusing notably on the new testament st augustine s confessions st thomas s de veritate and the encyclicals of various pre vatican ii popes a detailed textually based critique of these early sources reveals inconsistencies and conceptual errors that are shown to carry over into faith and reason john paul ii s treatment of reason in particular turns out to be aberrant to the point of incoherence it is inconceivable how this reason could join with faith in a way that lifts the human spirit to a contemplation of truth as stated in the preface of the encyclical there is another sense of reason however which demonstrably is capable of cooperating with faith to achieve this effect this reason is free from the fetters of neo scholasticism that keep john paul ii s reason grounded the present study joins forces with the encyclical with a detailed example of this other sense of reason in action in this example new truths come to light regarding the complex relation between the first and the second great commandments the essays in this volume address a closely interconnected set of questions to be true to its mission what function is the church meant to perform what does the faith of christians contribute to the human perception of justice what is the theological significance of action undertaken by christians for political or social transformation is justice to be looked on as one of the moral virtues that it is incumbent on christians to practice or has it a more intrinsic link to the gift of faith which christians have received does the following of christ call christians away from social systems into the new creation or is the call extended to them to concern themselves with the social systems which shape human beings from the foreword contributors include avery dultes william dych john donahue john langan david hollenbach richard roach william walsh
